Height: 175cm • Positions: WD, C
National League Games: 133 • National League Debut Year: 2017
First Junior Club: Lightning Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Teaching

West Coast Fever captain Jess Anstiss is a West Australian Pathway product who has been with the Club since her League debut in 2017. The relentless midcourter was part of the Club's maiden premiership side in 2022 and was elected captain by her peers in 2024. Anstiss is known for her strong leadership on and off the court and her ability to change a game from her Wing Defence bib.

ROMELDA AIKEN-GEORGE PRP

DOB: 19/11/1988 • Place of Birth: Kingston, Jamaica
Height: 196cm • Positions: GS • Test Caps: 86 (JAMAICA)
National League Games: 245 • National League Debut Year: 2008
First Junior Club: Jamalco
Occupation/Field of Study: Head Coach, Ipswich Girls Grammar

It's the comeback story everyone will have their eye on. Jamaican superstar Romelda Aiken-George announced her retirement from the game at the end of 2025 after 245 National League Games. Those plans have been put on hold as she joins Fever to replace good friend and national teammate Jhaniele Fowler-Nembhard, who takes parental leave this year. Aiken-George is the second highest goal scorer in the history of the National League and will be bring her four-time premiership winning experience to the green dress.

Previously played at:

Adelaide Thunderbirds, 2024-2025
New South Wales Swifts, 2023
Queensland Firebirds, 2008-2022

RUTH ARYANG

DOB: 14/01/2004 • Place of Birth: Perth, Western Australia
Height: 184cm • Positions: GD, GK
National League Games: 4 • National League Debut Year: 2024
First Junior Club: Illusions Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Disability Support Worker

Ruth Aryang is a homegrown talent who has worked her way through the Netball WA pathway. She was named the Club's inaugural 11th player in 2024 and was elevated to the contracted 10 in 2025. Her amazing vertical leap and closing speed make her a challenge for any shooter. Her 2025 season was cut short after rupturing her achilles tendon following Round Two and she is expected to return to the court during the 2026 season.*

SUNDAY ARYANG

DOB: 25/12/2000 • Place of Birth: Ethiopia
Height: 184cm • Positions: GD, WD, GK • Test Caps: 39 (AUS)
National League Games: 93 • National League Debut Year: 2019
First Junior Club: Illusions Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Aged Care

Sunday Aryang is one of West Coast Fever's inaugural premiership players, known for her fierce defensive skills. She is an Origin Australia Diamond with a gold medal to her name and has been a contracted player with the Club since 2020. After a stellar 2025 SSN and international season, Sunday devastatingly ruptured her ACL during the dying moments of the final game and is expected to miss the entirety of 2026 SSN season as well as the Commonwealth Games.*

CAITLYN BROWN TRP/TP

DOB: 5/10/1999 • Place of Birth: Perth, Western Australia
Height: 186cm • Positions: GD, GK
National League Games: 1 • National League Debut Year: 2025
First Junior Club: Classics Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Teaching

Caitlyn Brown enters 2025 off the back of her record third Jill McIntosh Medal for the Most Valuable Player in the Gold Industry Group WA Netball League. Brown will temporarily replace Ruth Aryang this season, until Ruth is ready to return to the court. A WA pathway product, Brown became a training partner for Fever in 2025 and made her SSN debut in Round 13 at RAC Arena.

JORDAN CRANSBERG

DOB: 26/11/1999 • Place of Birth: Melbourne, Victoria
Height: 176cm • Positions: C, WA, WD
National League Games: 29 • National League Debut Year: 2023
First Junior Club: Aberfeldie Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Studying Medicine

In 2025, Jordan Cransberg had her breakout season in her third year. She is now widely known across the League for her impressive speed and agility, making her a force that even veteran players fear. The Victorian-born joined her twin sister Zoe in the environment in 2023 as a Training Partner and currently balances her study of medicine with her playing career.

ZOE CRANSBERG PRP

DOB: 26/11/1999 • Place of Birth: Melbourne, Victoria
Height: 178cm • Positions: C, WA, WD
National League Games: 18 • National League Debut Year: 2022
First Junior Club: Aberfeldie Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Studying Physiotherapy

After years of hard work, Zoe Cransberg officially joins Fever's 10 as the permanent replacement player for Sunday Aryang. In 2025, Zoe was named the 11th player and had the unique and impressive experience of playing 13 of 16 games, including the Grand Final, after Ruth Aryang was ruled out. She has been with the Club since 2022 and is known for her ability to insert fresh energy into a game. Zoe will miss Fever's pre-season campaign and likely Round One with a foot injury.

KADIE-ANN DEHANEY

DOB: 04/09/1996 • Place of Birth: Kingston, Jamaica
Height: 192cm • Positions: GK, GD • Test Caps: 43 (JAMAICA)
National League Games: 103 • National League Debut Year: 2017
First Junior Club: Molynes United Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Geographical and Environmental Science

There aren't many personalities more beloved across the League than that of Kadie-Ann Dehaney. The Jamaican defender has played more than 100 SSN games and her energetic and relentless personality makes her a known threat for opposition shooters. Dehaney has called West Coast Fever home since 2024 and brings the experience of 43 International Test Caps with the Jamaican Sunshine Girls.

Previously played at:

Sunshine Coast Lightning, 2022-2023
Melbourne Vixens, 2017-2021

JHANIELE FOWLER-NEMBHARD

DOB: 21/07/1989 • Place of Birth: Montego Bay, Jamaica
Height: 198cm • Positions: GS • Test Caps: 101 (JAMAICA)
National League Games: 182 • National League Debut Year: 2013
First Junior Club: Pacesetter
Occupation/Field of Study: Guidance and Counselling

Previously played at:
Southern Steel, 2013-2017

There's no mistaking it, Jhaniele Fowler-Nembhard is one of the best to ever play the game, continuously setting and breaking her own records. The Club vice-captain is an inaugural premiership player and a pivotal part of the Fever's continued success. In 2025, she became the first player to reach 9,000 National League goals, held a 98 per cent accuracy rate and won her sixth Club Best and Fairest award and SSN Player of the Year award. In 2026, she has even more important plans on the cards, growing her loving family. Whilst she will remain a very important part of the Club, she won't hit the court this season.

SASHA GLASGOW

DOB: 19/07/1998 • Place of Birth: Adelaide, South Australia
Height: 187cm • Positions: GA, GS • Test Caps: 9 (ENGLAND)
National League Games: 90 • National League Debut Year: 2017
First Junior Club: Kadina Netball Football Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Sonography

Previously played at:
Melbourne Mavericks, 2024-2025
West Coast Fever, 2021 - 2023, 2026
Adelaide Thunderbirds, 2018-2020

Sasha Glasgow is welcomed back into the Green Army with open arms after two seasons away with the Melbourne Mavericks. The inaugural premiership MVP is part of an integral piece of Fever history and will be bringing her super shot prowess back to the side. Glasgow signed as an inaugural Maverick in 2024 but was sidelined with a broken leg for her first season. She will be looking to come back and show her career best form that the Green Army know well.*

VERITY SIMMONS TRP

DOB: 19/05/1991 • Place of Birth: Liverpool, New South Wales
Height: 170cm • Positions: C, WA • Test Caps: 3 (AUS)
National League Games: 174 • National League Debut Year: 2012
First Junior Club: Grafton Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Personal Training

Previously played at:
WCF, 2012-2013, 2016-2023, 2026
Queensland Firebirds, 2014-2015
New South Wales Swifts, 2025

Another maiden premiership player returns to the green dress, with Verity Simmons stepping in as a Temporary Replacement Player for Zoe Cransberg. Verity will be part of the squad through their pre-season campaign and likely Round One of the SSN season, until Zoe is ready to return to court. She is a vastly National and International experienced mid-courter, beloved by the Green Army.

National League Games: 136 • National League Debut Year: 2015
First Junior Club: Ocean Grove Football and Netball Club
Occupation/Field of Study: Physiotherapist

One of the most charming underdog stories of 2025, Alice Teague-Neeld delivered what is widely being recognised as her best year to date, in her 11th year in the national competition. The premiership player and vice-captain finished the year at the top of the table for goal assists and centre pass receives. After two years as an invitee to the Origin Australian Diamonds, Teague-Neeld officially made her debut in 2025 against South Africa and earned herself player of the series.

Previously played at:
Collingwood Magpies, 2017-2018

Height: 190cm • Positions: GA, GS
National League Games: 26 • National League Debut Year: 2024
First Junior Club: Chelt North Devils
Occupation/Field of Study: Studying Personal Training

A young gun talent to keep an eye on, Olivia Wilkinson enters her third season with an impressive level of experience. Wilkinson showed her flexibility in early 2025, swapping to the Goal Shooter position while Jhaniele Fowler-Nembhard was away from the court. At just 22 years of age, she has experienced an SSN Grand Final and was co vice-captain of the gold medal winning 21/U World Youth Cup Team.
